CATHOLIC LIFE

Thank you to Year 5 and Year 1 for leading mass on Wednesday.

PASSPORT TO FAITH

Can all Confirmation Candidates please bring their Passport to Faith into school after the Easter holidays. Thank you.

This term Y4, 5 and 6 have been studying the plays of Shakespeare in English lessons. Today the year groups had a special assembly to celebrate what they had learned, with prequels and scenes acted, great writing shared and even a battle cry performed in the form of a New Zealand haka. Well done everyone!

SPELLING STING!

Spelling Sting - this week's result will be announced during Monday's Assembly. Who will it be?!

SICKNESS

We still have a lot of children absent this week due to various illnesses. Get well soon children

Hand in hand, united in Friendship and Happiness

We listen to God's call, we learn from God's word and we share God's love through service

AFTER SCHOOL CLUBS

Most of the after school sporting activities finished last week, but we had a lot of children who were not collected at the end of the school day.

These are the only after school activities on next week.

SCHOOL CORRESPONDENCE

A letter sent home this week was to Year 2 regarding the Zoolab visit.

SCHOOL MEALS – REMINDER

School meals have to be paid for in advance, on a Monday morning before meals are taken for that week. All money must be in a sealed envelope, clearly marked with your child's name and class.

As next week is the last week of term, can we please ask that dinner money is paid on time to enable Mrs Brooks to complete her banking on time for the end of term.

Thank you.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

Many Happy Returns to these children who celebrate their birthdays during this week.
