W3c – Punctuation -

Inverted commas are nearly always in the correct place for simple speech - "Share this with me," he said.

1. Add inverted commas in the correct places in these sentences:

Sit down! Bellowed Mr Strange.

The woman in the ticket office said, who's next?

2. Turn these speech bubbles into sentences using inverted commas. You can make up your own character names to show who is speaking.

What's your name?

Don't forget your coat!

3. Correct all the punctuation mistakes in these sentences:

Oh no. "Ive lost my purse," cried darcey

"what brings you to my castle"? demanded king arthur.
